

Bill 9: Land Agents Licensing Amendment Act, 2008

Bill 9 has received Royal Assent, modifying the Land Agents Licensing Amendment Act, 2008. This change repeals the subsection (ii) of the “Landman” definition where compensation was an element of the someone who was defined as a “Landman”. It would now appear that you are acting as a “Landman” anytime you enter into negotiations or acquire an interest in land, even if such activities are conducted by you for your own interests.

Duncan Milne
Associate
Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

Link below:

http://www.assembly.ab.ca/net/index.aspx?p=bills_status&selectbill=009