

ISC.ca News Article

Land Registry fee adjustments coming into effect July 31, 2017

For placement on June 30, 2017 in the signed in section of Registry and isc.ca home page.

Effective July 31, 2017, ISC Land Registry fees will increase for all Interest Registration Services, with the exception of Tax Liens, Postponements, and Public Utility Easements.

Please visit www.isc.ca/2017fees for a full breakdown of fee changes, including a preview of the revised July 31, 2017 Land Registry fees.

ISC reviews registry fees on an annual basis. We are constantly evaluating the market and our business, and are committed to providing fair and sustainable fees to all our customers. The Company's Master Service Agreement (MSA) with the Government of Saskatchewan allows for core registry fees to be adjusted annually based on a formula tied to inflation, as measured by the Saskatchewan Price Index (CPI). The 2017 ISC Annual Fee Review has resulted in the aforementioned adjustments in the Land Registry with all other registry fees remaining unchanged.

More information on this fee change can be found on our website at www.isc.ca/2017fees.

Scanned Aerial Photo fee increase effective July 31, 2017

For placement on June 30, 2017 in the isc.ca home page.

Effective July 31, 2017, the fee for Scanned Aerial Photos is increasing from $32 to $40.

Please visit www.isc.ca/2017fees for a full breakdown of fee changes coming into effect July 31, 2017.

ISC reviews fees on an annual basis. We are constantly evaluating the market and our business, and are committed to providing fair and sustainable fees to all our customers. The 2017 ISC Annual Fee Review has resulted in the aforementioned fee adjustment with all other fees for Geomatics products and services remaining unchanged.

More information on this fee change can be found on our website at www.isc.ca/2017fees.