

Tim McCaffrey, P.Land

Landman with over 40 years of experience in the oil and gas industry and have extensive knowledge of all aspects of land and corporate.

Worked for various companies, start ups, junior and immediate producers, principally in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin, however have experience in variety of US and foreign jurisdictions.

Experienced in joint venture negotiations, exploration and corporate planning, acquisition and divestment of assets, title review, due diligence, contract preparation and review and surface management.

I have supervised land departments from a staff one to full team compliments. I have a reputation for honesty and integrity, self motivation and possess strong communication and organizational skills.

Seeking employment on a full-time, part-time or project basis.