

Chris Trudel, PSL

14 years in project management and leadership roles for stakeholder consultation and surface land acquisition including 10 years in oil and gas, 2 years in telecommunications site acquisition and 2 years in forest land management. Areas of expertise include:

- Aboriginal, Government, Industry and Public Stakeholder Engagement
- Regulatory expert for land and consultation aspects of energy development, representative on several CAPP and AER industry policy committees and working groups
- Highly adaptable communicator with exceptional interpersonal skills
- Experienced project manager with a proven history of successfully leading individual and team initiatives at many levels in a variety of industries and volunteer organizations
- Extensive professional development in the areas of communication, conflict management and Aboriginal relations